RECIPROCITY

And Retaliation Occupied the Senate Yesterday.

TAKE A LITTLE OF BOTH.

The Discussion Protracted And Quite Animated.

WILL NOT BE PASSED BEFORE M. NDAY.

Washington, July 2 .- Reciprocity of the tariff bill to occupy the attention of the Senate today, to the exclusion of all other subjects. Both provisions were agreed to, although the Ed Hall, the Victim of a Fatal Flodebate on the reciprocity clause was protracted to 6 p. m. Shortly before adjournment Mr. Allison eudeavored to secure an agreement on the time for a final vote, but Mr. submit these amendments he with- termoon with a Flobert rifle. drew his request, and the time for reached tomorrow.

The retalistory clause provides that whenever any country bestows an export bounty on any article, there shall be levied, in addition to the duthe bounty.

The reciprocity clause empowers the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to make reciprocity treaties, giving 20 per cent. reduction in duties on designated articles, or placing articles on the free

Sen. vor Wellington (Md.) rose to a questio," of personal privilege soon after the op ening of the Senate, and in a vehement voice referred to publications concern 'og a conflict said to have taken place | efore the committee on commerce, in felation to the appointment of B. The Senator declared that the publication was un- celebrated in Illinois, and as a result just, and sought to-embroil h. on in no trains are running into Brookcondict with the President of the lyo. United States. Mr. Wellington said he understood the committee meetings relating to nominations were sacred, and he could not believe tast any member of the committee gave the information. Under such circumstances, who, he said, could have inspired this report but "that creature" present in the committee

It was alleged that he had attacked President McKinley, but this, too, he declared, was false. He was a free man, and he reserved it to himself to criticise any appointment. He had done so vesterday in a respectful manner, and, should the occasion arise, he would do so again. He had the right to expect the same consideration as that accorded to other Republican senators.

"If the price of patronage is to be give it," exclaimed Mr. Wellington. being a national holiday. He spoke again of the "creature" responsible for the report, and closed with an emphatic statement as to his prerogatives.
